Mystery Manor, Poseidon's Outbreak!

THE CLOCK JUST FINISHED TICKING TO ITS LAST BREATH AND IT TURNED 3A.M, that was when

Dr.Black was really bored and had nothing to do, which led to him making the mistake of inviting guests over to his mansion. You would think it's COMMON to invite guests, but he lived in a small town with a high murder rate, and there would be MONSTERS with the ability to morph into humans, crazy, right? As a result, he usually sticks with his uncle to know who to trust and who not to, but Sir Hugh (The uncle) is deceased into the soil.

The invitations were delivered to six fellow guests and old acquaintances of his, who were Doctor Orchid, Lady Scarlett, Mrs.Peacock, Doctor Green, Officer Plum, and Doctor Mustard. Each individual had peculiar and unusual characteristics that made Doctor black skeptical at first sight. "It is delightful to see all my dear visitors on this lovely hour!", states Dr. Black in a British accent. They entered the mansion and were astonished by its size; it was the ideal location for the murderer to begin the execution.

They converse in the living room while watching a horror film. "Hold on, I'll go get some snacks for us, pause the movie!", says Doctor Black. SHOCKINGLY!! An utterly disturbing beast sheds his cover, turning into an obnoxious and horrific artifact! The monster knew it was the right time to kill him as soon as Dr.Black said that. "I'm going to the restroom, I'll be quick!" exclaimed the murderer, luring others into his trap. THE ASSASSIN APPROACHES DOCTOR BLACK AND SUMMONS A SCYTHE WITH BLOOD DRIPPING DOWN, SO SHARP AND SHINY THAT YOU CAN SEE YOUR OWN REFLECTION.

Doctor Black lets out a HORRIFYING BLOOD-CURLING scream that was heard by everyone, because of that the killer had to slaughter him as quickly as possible while still putting up the phony clues.

After the horrifying yell, the visitors sprang to their feet with vigor. “WHAT WAS THAT DISGRACEFUL LOUD SCREECH?!”, says Lady Scarlet. Professor Plum advises everyone to get up and investigate what happened to Dr. Black. The nobles stroll out to comprehend what is happening, and Bentley, the watchdog, found something exceptionally terrifying! It was a topaz jewel in the library with shredded blood! “Fluttering Feathers! It’s almost as if it’s a clue to tell us what happened!!”, declares Mrs. Peacock. Bentley sniffs the essence of the topaz jewelry and immediately recognizes the assassin; she barfs loudly, signaling that this hint is a complete fabrication! "Hey, what's the matter?" Doctor Green asks. Bentley continues to barf and hop around. "Hmmm, maybe Bentley is trying to warn us the hint is a lie!", Orchid speculates. After Orchid’s speculation, Doctor Mustard walks in. “Hey! I deeply apologize for taking long; the toilet was clogged.”, said Doctor Mustard. They ignore it and quickly tell Mustard what is going on, as the guests explain what happened to Doctor Black, he clenches his fist and starts to sweat.

DOCTOR MUSTARD CAN’T CONTROL HIS ANXIETY AND TRANSFORMS INTO THE VICIOUS DEMON!

DR. ORCHID RAPIDLY LOCKS THE MONSTER WITH SEA PRISM HANDCUFFS BEFORE CREATING HAVOC “These sea prism handcuffs interrupt you from transforming because they disable your ability to interchange!” A bulking round of applause is performed and the Manor is saved. Specialists arrive and exterminate the house due to the critical activities there. “I am sorry, but Dr. Black is gone..” Say the specialists. THAT SENTENCE CAUSED ALL GRIEF TO OTHERS. Doctor Black was known for being a generous man who was always willing to support those in need. Overtime, they were able to conquer the tragedy without reliving the fears and horrors of the past.
